REYNOLDS-KELSO.—At the home of the groom's mother, 221 Pearl St., Pittsburg, Pa., Wednesday evening, August 8th 1894, Mr. W. B. Reynolds and Miss Agnes Ella Kelso. There were about twenty relations and friends. Immediately after the ceremony Mother Reynolds invited all to come and partake of that which sustains this physical body, of which was sumptuous feast just suitable for such an occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds left on their wedding tour the same evening for Atlantic City and other prominent watering places in the east. After their return they will make their home in the Smokey City. May peace, prosperity and happiness ever attend them through life.

Our Dead.

WALKER.—Ida Beulah, daughter of Augustus and Sister Ella Walker, was born April 24th, 1893, died Aug. 2nd, 1894, aged 1 year, 3 months and 8 days.

This little darling child endured much suffering in her brief illness but Beulah shall never suffer again. The home she has gone to bronchitis and whooping-cough can never come. May God bless and comfort the bereaved parents. For now we see through a glass darkly but then face to face. 1 Cor. xiii, 24.

THOMPSON.—Sister Rosetta, wife of Isaac Thompson was born June 8th, 1863, died Aug. 5th, 1894, aged 31 years 1 month and 27 days. She united with the Brethren church at Burnes Chapel Dec. 26th, 1893. With two years acquaintance with her and being her pastor, we learned to know and esteem her as a kind and affectionate sister in Christ. She was quiet in her manner, not making as loud profession as some, yet the even tenor of her life marked her as a devoted Christian. The prosperity of the church and the salvation of souls seemed to be her strongest desire. Her remains were laid to rest in the Omega M. E. burying ground, west of Akron, Ind. Funeral by the writer to a large and sympathizing congregation. The husband, children and friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Many a man prays the Lord's Prayer every day who never thinks it worth while to try to hurt the devil with his vote.

THE PITTSBURG CHURCH.

I delayed making mention of this church, which I visited on my trip east, because I had much I desired to say, but time is precious and I will delay no longer, I believe it will be one of our strong churches some day, when the start is considered and the difficulties are remembered, and the adverse circumstances are called to mind, and then measure the work done we can say "What hath God wrought."

Old churches have gone down and others suffered from hard times, yet the little band, whose hearts God has touched, have gone from one degree of success to the other. Bro. Bole has stood by the church in the pastoral relations, as but few are standing by the church, not only giving it his time but his means as well. Anyone having friends in the city should send them to the church and make the pastor acquainted with the fact, and those taking the Pittsburg Times should send the votes in that he might succeed in that trip to the Holy Land. It is an opportunity of a life time. Pittsburg may furnish more than one preacher for the church at large.

If you are a church member, you are not helping the Lord any while on a street car platform with a cigar in your mouth.

The world is full of people who will pray with a loud voice for the Lord to convert the whole earth, who will not give over five dollars a year to help do it.
